DEDICATION

In recognition of invaluable counsel, in acknowledgment of devotion to duty, in appreciation of true comradeship, and with the sincere desire that succeeding classes may recognize in her the same womanly and endearing characteristics which we have discovered and loved, we, the graduating class of Taunton High School, do inscribe and dedicate this, our Journal, to the Dean of Girls, Mary Louise Fitzgerald.

ONCE in the dark and distant time immemorial, the eighty-first class of freshmen to enter Taunton High School, recruits then insignificant but destined to distinguish themselves with dauntless deeds, ventured within the high school halls. Gradually they grew in stature and in wisdom, gaining recognition and the dutiful deference of lowly underclassmen. Progressively they sowed the seeds of friendship, cultivated varied interests in extra-curricular activities and reaped an educational harvest. Finally, when their days were numbered, and wider vistas loomed, they strove to compile, for memory's sake, this volume so that their successors of ensuing years might turn the pages, point with pride, and proclaim, "Behold the Seniors of Forty-Four!"

Homeroom 101

REMEMBER Mary Carroll's and Jean Brady's mischievousness...artistic Mary Beloli...Dick Childs' bashfulness...servicemen John Adamczyk, Warren Averill, John Bass, Donald Blackwell, and Dick Childs... "Collich" fellows Parker Carr and John Coffin...Anthony Correia's "perfect attendance"...Fred Carmody's ties...the antics of Cohen and Castro...Shirl Brown's quiet ways...Bev Chace's wax paper sales...neat Jean Chadwick...Chet's and Esther's mild flirtation...Bev Brown's smile... Grace Bullock's ability to hold a job and still continue homework.

Homeroom 102

REMEMBER Freddy Florence's Victory Corps dinners...Dot Donnelly's "Buy a stamp?"...servicemen Drummond, Durato, Cote, and Flagg...last-minute Gordon Dwyer...daydreaming Dias...John E's smiles...John L's thermos of coffee...Bob Ferrie, waiting for the recess bell... Art Durato's letter, asking Tillie whom she talked to now!...silent Millie Duffen and Marilyn Eccles... master-mind David Davis...Rosaline Cravenho, Edna Cruz, Peg Crowninshield, Lucille Christo, and their recess "sessions"...vivacious Peg Fitzpatrick.

Homeroom 103

REMEMBER Gay's gay ties... Hoyer's "minute" conversations with "Clancy"...chattering Betty Gifford and Adella Kuczek...Lil Gonsalves' sales talk...Jane George's pleasant ways...the great shift before recess... Anita's laughter...the cooking adventures of Joubert and Joe...unpredictable Eva Klausky...Phyllis Horton's bashfulness...Mary Gillon's and Higgins' wit...Gregg's securing his coat before the final bell...Dot Gordon's ever-smiling face...Greenough's "few" study periods...quiet Jean Josselyn, Josephine Haun, and Marion Johnson...our gobs, Joubert and Hastings.

Homeroom 107

REMEMBER how 107 rated second highest in stamp sales...how proud we were of club leaders Carol Martin, Dorcas Hamilton, Helen Phillips, Jeanne Peterson, George Maran, Rivienne Ofengand, Bob Moitoza, and Shirley McGinn...quiet Bill Perry...the Lima ambition...Kay Lane and French...our twelve "Journal" laborers and our twelve servicemen...McLaughlin's rise to fame...cheating the bell...shy Ida Mendes...industrious Paul Martin...the seven Cadet officers...Army talks...Perra's, Montville's, Laro's, and McCarthy's antics.

Homeroom 108

REMEMBER Shaw's beating the bell...Sanford's and Red Shippee's visits to the library...Joe Silva's sweaters...Mary Ripley and her speeches on stamp collecting days...Schultz and Schefer, giggling...Norman Shippee's jokes...Bud Roberts, pulling Mary Ripley's hair...Eleanor Santos' pin-up boy...Pollard's, Sanford's, and Salander's bow-ties...Gert Reilly's pig-tails...Nat Rebello's cute clothes...Rita Politella's cramming...the scramble at 1:38...Bill Powers in Navy blues...Shaw and Sanford, chattering.

Homeroom 109

REMEMBER the lunchroom obstacle race...Southam's snappy clothes...Gladys Spousta's race against time...Thelma Yates' jokes...the growing number of vacant seats...how slowly those last two minutes of the day passed...Spaulding's extra tie in his desk...All-Bristol football stars, Williams and Youngberg...Sokoloski's sleep before opening exercises...Williams' bashfulness...Bob Wood, attending classes in uniform...Norma Taggart's swell disposition...Thelma Yates' nail polish...Spaulding's morning letters to Alice...Mary Vernazza's giggling...Youngberg's wittiness...White's sportsmanship.

WHEN the Lamp of Knowledge burned low, when the zeal for completing Latin translations, French grammar drills, geometric propositions and chemistry problems waned, there were the extra-curricular activities. While the wise and mundane Student Council deliberated on the affairs of scholarly government, and the History Club debated on international relations; while dramatists invoked the inspiration of Thalia, and classical leaguers emulated the Roman governmental system; during teas and bowling outings, Spanish festivals and battalion parades, Red Cross council assemblages and football rallies, Glee Club rehearsals, Tauntonian staff meetings and the eloquent debates of the Public Speaking clubs, the Seniors knew that they were absorbing a culture and background which no textbook could impart. And they knew that their club photographs would forever symbolize the good fellowship of four happy years.

"EATING IS FUN"
When You're Eating Ice Cream

Nutritionists agree that Ice Cream is a health building food as well as the Nation's Favorite Dessert.

Eating Ice Cream is another way of including the valuable properties of milk in your diet.

EAT ICE CREAM EVERY DAY
FOR HEALTHFUL NUTRITION

BE SURE IT'S

Hood's Ice Cream
